Re: Filing of Security Agreement with
Interstate Commerce Commission

Dear Bill:

Enclosed are the following documents:

1. Our letter to the Interstate Commerce Commission;
2. The original and two copies of your security agreement, showing recordation at the ICC on December 21, 1978 at 11:30 a.m.; and
3. A receipt by the ICC for the $50.00 filing fee.

Our search of the ICC files failed to reveal any existing security agreement on property owned by Mr. C.V. Alexander, Jr. In fact, there is no record at the ICC of a filing by the Second National Bank of Jackson. For that reason, we did not file with the ICC the Release which you forwarded to us.

The only agreement on record pertaining to these cars is a Lease dated November 7, 1977 and recorded February 10, 1978 (No. 9227) wherein Railcar Inc., acting as agent for the lessor, leased MDDE 1001 - 1003 to the Maryland and Delaware Railroad Company.

Also enclosed is our bill for searching the title and filing your security agreement. If there is anything further that we can do for you, please let us know.

Very truly yours,
